In Kansas City.

[Extract from a Private Letter.]

I extended my annual vacation trip beyond the Mississippi. What I saw surprised me. The recent growth and progress of that part of the country is amszing. I was especially interested in Kausas City. To find an elegant brown stone and plateg ass city almost in the middle of the continent, in the very heart of what was not long ago the "wild West," is bewildering to Eastern ideas. Ye child of the railroads, a great town in fact and greater still in destiny. They have a cable road there, too; shead of New York. How does that strike you old fogy New Englanders, who think a city must grow slowly as a rock or a turtle?

Kenses City is full of business activity, also.

Don't let that fact escape you. Eastern sharpness and Western breadth here meet together. In the drug store of E. P. Dickinson, corner Twelfth and Main streets, I met Mr. C. D. Auringer, with whom I got talking about plasters, as I wanted something in that line for my own as in that line for my own use Said he: "If you want the best plaster on earth, you want Benson's Capcine." "How do you know?" said I.
"I know in this way," he replied, "About three years ago I was all doubled up with inflammatory rheumatism. Understand? All doubled up with

WHY DOES

Every woman try to have her home attractive? Is it not that she may make it pleasant for her husband and her children? It is a source of sorrow to many that they can not furnish their home as handsome'y as they would like because of a lack of means.

A WOMAN

Who reads the newspapers carefully, however, has no excuse for not furnishing the home with attractions and comforts. For there are dealers in the city who sell everything necessary for the household, offering such terms that those in moderate circums tances can afford to buy. To every

GROW OLD

Worrying over this matter, but go to the Great Furniture House of BORN & CO., No. 97 East Washington Street, where you can get anything you want in the way of FURNITURE, CARPETS, STOVES, Etc., on Weekly Payments. Tell them you saw their advertisement inthe Sunday Sentinel, and that you want the best terms they can give you.

SOONER THAN

You can imagine, your home will be transformed from its ordinary uninviting appearance to a regular little paradise. You will be surprised to see how much sunshine you have brought to your family, and

A MAN

Who would not love his wife more and desire to stay in at nights in such a home, deserves to be without a wife, without a family and without a home. Remember to make no mistakes as to the location of BORN & CO. They are at No. 97 East Washington street and 14 and 16 South Delaware street, and they will sell you anything in their mammoth establishment on payments,
